TEXAS ELECTION CODE

Art. 16 (Vernon's Art. 3.02). In elections where paper ballots are used, the ballots shall be counted by one or more sets of counting officers, each set to consist of one judge or clerk who shall read the ballots, and one or more clerks who shall enter the votes on tally lists prepared for the election. As a safeguard in the accuracy of the tallying, the votes shall be entered on three original tally lists, and during the progress of the counting the lists shall be compared and errors and discrepancies shall be corrected, and at the close of the counting the tally clerks shall certify officially to the correctness of the lists.

Art. 111b (Vernon's Art. 8.29b). Copies of returns, poll lists, and tally lists; distribution:

(a) In precincts using paper ballots. In all general, special and primary elections, the number of copies of the returns, poll list, and tally list required for each precinct in which paper ballots are used shall be as follows: four copies of the returns, four copies of the poll list, and three copies of the tally list. These records shall be distributed as follows:

(1) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the authority which canvasses the returns (the county judge in elections held by the county; the mayor in city elections; the presiding officer of the governing board in elections held by other political subdivisions; and the chairman of the county executive committee in county primary elections) and shall be preserved by the canvassing authority for sixty days from the day of the election.

(2) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be delivered to the proper officer (the county clerk in elections held by the county and in county primary elections; the city secretary or clerk in municipal elections; and the presiding officer of the governing board in elections held by other political subdivisions), to be kept by him in his office open to inspection by the public for sixty days from the day of the election.

(3) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be placed in the ballot box containing the voted ballots.

(4) The presiding judge shall retain in his custody one copy of the returns and one copy of the poll list of the election, and shall keep the same for sixty days after the day of the election, subject to the inspection of anyone interested in such election.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT THE WITHIN AND FOREGOING IS A TRUE AND CORRECT TALLY LIST KEPT BY ME FOR THE ABOVE DESCRIBED ELECTION.

Darrance Kelley

Clerk who kept this Tally List.
